THE LATE COLONEL BOWERS.

Additional Particulars of His Death-Congressional Action Regarding Ithetter of Condolence from General Grant to His Brother—The General and Staff and the Illinois Congressional Delegation to Attend His Funeral.

In addition to the brief despatch from the agent of the associated Press at Poughkeepsie, published yesterday, se this morning give the particulars of the deplorable accident to Colonel T. S. Bowers, Assistant Adjutant meral to General Grant.

General Grant, accompanied by General Bowers and neral Grant's son, arrived at Garrison's station, on the adson River Railroad, opposite West Point, at a late us on Monday night, being compelled to remain on the et side of the river until morning. The next day, after backfast, the distinguished party were ferried over the rer. After General Grant had left his son at the Point panied by Colonel Bowers, set out to return, arriving back at Garrison's about three o'clock in the afternoon, and about fifteen minutes before the fown train frem Albany was due, and on which they were to proceed to New York. When the rain arrived some difficulty occurred in relation to a sarpet bag belonging to the party being missed, when Colonel Bowers followed the station arent to his office to see about it, General Grant in the meantime being scated in the car next to the last on the train.

When the agent arrived in the ticket office he picked up a carpet bag, and presented it to the view of Colonel Bowers, who said, "That is not the cine." The train at that time had started, when Colonel Bowers rushed out to get on board. In attempting to do so he seized hold of the railing on the platform of the car in which General Grant was seated and jumped upon the step, his body sirking with such force against the car as 40 break his bold on the railing, precipitating him from the step. In the fall he swung around between the cars, his head and that part of his body above his hips falling inside of the track, the car running over han, producing death instantly. His body was dragged about one hundred yards on to a switch and over it, the head being horribly mutilated, as was also the upper part of the body. As soon as possible the train was stopped, the crowd rushed to the spot, and the body of the unformate man was taken from the track. General Grant was immediately notified of the sad affair by Mr. Garrison who said, "General, I think your adjutant is killed;" to which the General replied, "Something told me he was killed;" and, upon viewing the body, he said, "That is him. A very estimable man he was. He has been with me through all my battles." Turning to Major Hill, of West Point, he ordered the remains to be taken to the Point and buried, there to lie until further orders. Yesterday morning Coroner Hasen Perry, of Putnam county, proceeded to West Point, and after having held an inquest on the body, delivered

Golden said he had given the three counterfeit bills to Justice Hogan at the Tombs, and from that time untilmew they had remained in the hands of the Court.
Mr. Charles Spencer appeared for Mr. Lachman, who had been brought before the Commissioner on a charge regarding this case, and said that his client had no conmection with it, there being no witnesses to show that fact.

Mr. Bell rested the case for the present, and asked for an adjournment. Gounsel for the accused would consent to an adjourn-nent for ashort time. He would not cross-examing the witnesses until the testimony on behalf of the Enited States was closed. ates was closed. The case was adjourned until Friday.

The Otero Murder.

The Detrict Atterney of Kings county has determined to appeal to the Court of Appeals in Albany from the decision of the general term of the Supreme Court, which lately set aside the judgment of the Oyer and Terminer, in the cases of Pellicer and Gonzales, and has motified the respective counsel that he will move the sames for argument on the fourth Tuesday of this month. He seems determined, if posible, to prevent a new trial. Mesers McCue and Deutt will argue the case for thousales and J. D. Townsend for Pellicar.

The President Signs the Act to Prevent the Spread of Foreign Disease Among Cattle.

WASHINGTON, March 7, 1866. THE RECEPROCITY TREATY.

Reciprocity was discussed at great length in the House to-day. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, opened the debate, and took streng ground against the measure. Long John Wantworth, Driggs, of Michigan; Judge Spalding, Phelpa, Hogan and Morrill followed. Long John wasgishly proposes to let Canada go without reciprocity for a while, under the belief that she will util mately fall into our hands. Hogan made the only speech favoring reciprocity. Mr. Blaine's motion, near the effect of debate, to strike out the enacting clause of the bill was not agreed to and the Committee of the Whole rose without having come to any resolution upon the bill. Mr. Morrill concedes that the bill will fail in

The bill to amend "An act to prevent the spread of foreign diseases among the cattle of the United States"
(approved in December Inst), as it passed both houses, having been signed by the President, is now a law.

THEASURY DEPARTMENT, March 7, 1866.
TO CUSTOM HOUSE OFFICE AND AUSTREE OF THE UNITED STATES IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES:—
Your attention is respectfully directed to the amendatery act relating to the importation of foreign cattle and hides. In accordance with its provisions I have different to suspend its operations in regard to importations from equations other than those of Europe, as the "cattle disease" does not seem to be prevalent elsewhere. Custom officers will take care that no neat cattle nor hides of neat cattle, coming immediately or facts of the property of the cattle and the cattle and the cattle disease, the cattle and the
